National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable (NCCRT) Bylaws

ARTICLE

I. PREAMBLE

The National Colorectal Cancer Roundtable is a national coalition of public, private, and voluntary organizations, and invited individuals dedicated to reducing the incidence of and mortality from colorectal cancer in the U.S., through coordinated leadership, strategic planning, and advocacy.

II. PURPOSE

To facilitate national colorectal cancer awareness, prevention, and early detection through public education, provider education, and health policy activities.

III. MEETINGS

1. The full NCCRT will have at least one yearly meeting, to be designated as the Annual Meeting. Elections for officers and Steering Committee members will be held at the annual meeting. Notice of full NCCRT meetings will be sent at least 90 days prior to the date of the meeting. Agendas will be available no less than 30 working days prior to the date of the meeting.
2. The Steering Committee will meet at least twice a year. Notice of committee meetings (stating date, time, and place) should be provided at least 30 days prior to the date of the meeting. Agendas will be available no less than 15 working days prior to the date of the meeting. Emergency meetings of the Steering Committee may be called at the discretion of the Chair.
3. Meetings will be conducted under Robert's Rules of Order.
4. With the exception of the annual meeting of the NCCRT, face-to-face meetings are not required.

IV. MEMBERSHIP

1. The NCCRT will consist of member organizations and invited individuals which reflect a broad involvement in colorectal cancer prevention and early detection.
2. Applications for membership will be reviewed by the NCCRT Membership Committee and submitted to the NCCRT Steering Committee for approval.

3. General Criteria for Membership: Organizations or individuals must meet one or more of the criteria listed below to be considered for membership:
 - a. Have a strong interest in reducing colorectal cancer morbidity and mortality;
 - b. Have outstanding expertise and reputation in colorectal cancer information and research;
