

Next Steps

*Developing NCCRT's Next
Strategic Roadmap*

NATIONAL
COLORECTAL
CANCER
ROUNDTABLE

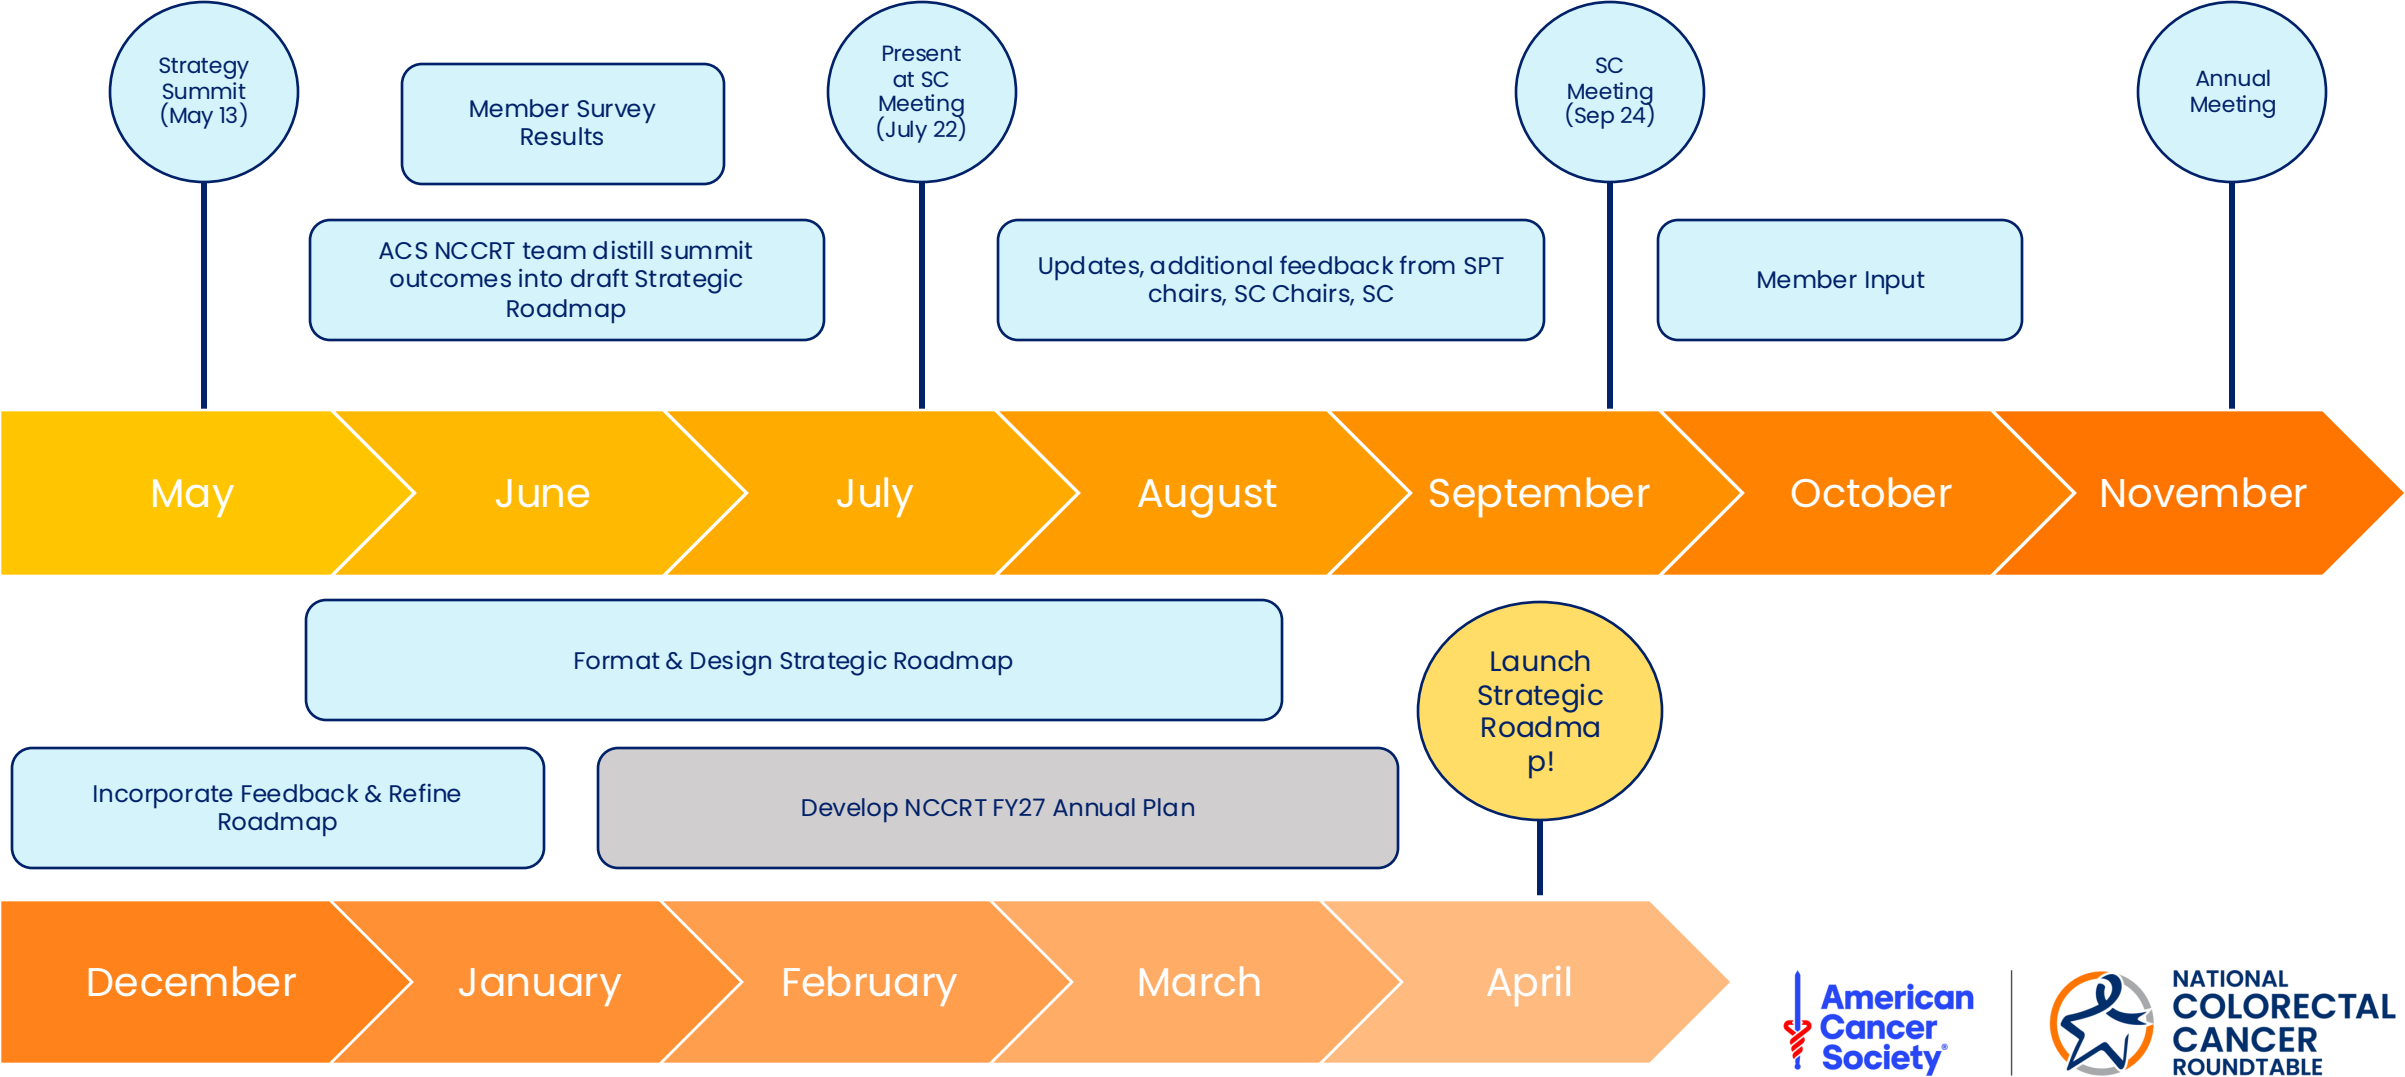

Kaitlin Sylvester
Strategic Director, ACS NCCRT

Next Steps

- NCCRT will collect and share slides, meeting information with attendees
- NCCRT team will take discussions from the summit and begin to draft a strategic roadmap for the RT
- Debrief with internal team, update leadership
- Receive feedback & input from Chairs, Steering Committee, SPT chairs
- Seek input from NCCRT membership
- Align committees, project work, and roundtable timelines to new roadmap
- Format & Design

Timeline

Strategic Priority Teams

Based on Priority Areas Defined in the 80% in Every Community Strategic Plan

- Community Health Centers
- Family History & Early-Age Onset Colorectal Cancer
- Policy Action
- Professional Education & Practice Implementation
- Public Awareness & Social Media
- State-Based Initiatives

Strategic Priority Teams

Purpose & Benefits of SPTs:

- Cultivate relationships with current and future leaders of the roundtable
- Engage new and existing members
- Learn about and discuss emerging topics, opportunities, barriers
- Project ideations
- Member-to-member networking and collaborative opportunities

Membership Engagement

- Review and integrate member survey results into early draft of roadmap
- Continue to explain the “why” of the new strategic roadmap to membership
- Seek feedback from evaluation team to set parameters of gathering feedback
- Determine and the scope of incorporating it into our draft roadmap
- Next NCCRT Member Survey: February 2026